

Help us fill the star jar

All month long we are celebrating the people who care for your child. In the staff room there is a big jar with twenty-five empty stars. Every review a family leaves puts one gold star in it, and as the stars add up, the whole team gets a celebration: coffee at the first star, Starbucks at three, lunch at five, all the way to a grand prize when the jar is full. If your family has had a good experience here, an honest Google review is the easiest way to add a star.

Every celebration goes to the whole team. When the jar is full, the stars come out and we start again.

- 1 Leave an honest review on Google. Two minutes, from your phone.
- 2 Every Friday we read the new reviews aloud to the team and add the stars.
- 3 Each mark on the jar is a celebration for the whole team, coffee to grand prize.

IN OUR FAMILIES' WORDS

Love, love, love the personal care the teachers give to the kids and parents. The teachers are patient, kind, loving, thoughtful, caring, creative, passionate, extraordinary, and unique.

Kaycie Y. · Parent · ★★★★★

The teachers at Growing Mindfully are kind and generous with their hearts. My son has been there for the last 6 months and I can tell it is like a second home for him.

Nathalie P. · Mom of a son · ★★★★★

The teachers seem to develop real and meaningful relationships with the kids and are genuinely invested in their growth and development.

Alex B. · Parent · ★★★★★

The teachers really show love and care for the students, and have done so much to address any concerns my husband or I have.

Karen B. · Mom of a son · ★★★★★
